

MOOC Classes

Who are they for?

The courses are for adult educators,
health and social care practitioners,
and everyone who wants to know about the implications of digital transformations within modern societies.

Based on...

- Surveys
- Focus groups
- Desk research
- Our experience

Training material:

- engaging content in full text and audio
- videos
- best practices
- quizzes

Expected results

- Updated skills among carers and educators of older persons on the implications of the human rights framework on their training practices
- An increased insight on disempowering practices, such as neglect of older persons' needs and preferences in relation to the direct and indirect use/no use of digital devices and services
- Training tools for organizations and professionals working with older persons
